

Why Choose Kalahari Resorts & Conventions?

As the leader in the waterpark industry, Kalahari has been known as an innovator. As a family-owned company, you'll get a chance to feel the presence of the family and their passion for hospitality, plus learn the inner-workings of a successful entrepreneurial brand. You could even make a difference that becomes part of ongoing corporate policy.

To feel the brand, you must live the culture. You need to see the sense of urgency by which effective leaders live. It's all an aligned effort to push the envelope and grow the brand – one Beyond Expectations moment at a time.

We'll immerse you in specific University of Kalahari training, expose you to a number of new adventures and task you in with different responsibilities. We're so much more than the #WorldsCoolestWaterparks!
