New waterfront dining destination offers an elevated take on the classic Wisconsin supper club experience

WISCONSIN DELLS, Wis. (May 11, 2026) - A new chapter in Wisconsin dining begins this spring as Daylene's Supper Club, an elevated waterfront dining destination from Kalahari Resorts & Conventions, officially opens to the public May 15, 2026.

While rooted in the rich heritage of Wisconsin supper clubs, Daylene's offers a fresh and modern perspective including a distinctive dining experience, welcoming guests for lunch and dinner.

For the Nelson family, founders and owners of Kalahari Resorts & Conventions, dining has always been at the heart of hospitality. Born and raised in Wisconsin, Todd and Shari Nelson launched their entrepreneurial journey in Wisconsin Dells with a local pizza pub before building Kalahari into one of the nation's premier resort destinations. Daylene's reflects their deep appreciation for bringing people together over memorable meals and meaningful moments.

"Daylene's was created to celebrate everything people love about the classic Wisconsin supper club experience. Warm hospitality, exceptional food, and unforgettable moments shared around the table," said Todd Nelson, owner and CEO of Kalahari Resorts. "We're thrilled to introduce a destination that feels both nostalgic and new, right here on the shores of Lake Delton."

Guests can begin their visit with a handcrafted Old Fashioned at the inviting bar before exploring a menu inspired by classic Midwestern supper club traditions. Offerings range from hand-cut steaks and slow-roasted prime rib to flatbreads and house-made favorites like French onion soup, shrimp cocktail, and decadent desserts, each dish thoughtfully prepared to bring comfort, flavor, and a sense of occasion to the table.

In addition to daily dining, Daylene's offers private and semi-private event spaces, making it an ideal setting for celebrations, corporate gatherings, and special occasions. Groups can enjoy customizable menus tailored to create memorable experiences for every event.

Visitors looking to extend their stay can book one of the nearby Kalahari Treehouse Adventures.
